

GUIDE N° 9 - STUDENTS

Make sure you complete each worksheet in order and double-check your answers before moving on. If you have any questions about the exercises, feel free to ask!

MODAL VERB CAN:

Study the explanation and examples carefully. Pay attention to the sentence structure and the difference between CAN and CAN'T.

After that, work on EXERCISE 1: WRITE THE SENTENCES

DIRECTIONS:

Look at the chart. Based on the information in the chart, write complete sentences using can or can't to describe what these people are able or unable to do.

 Use this structure:

[Name] can/can't + verb + complement.

PREPOSITION + ING

Study the explanation and examples provided.

Pay close attention to how prepositions are followed by verbs ending in -ing (gerunds). You will apply this rule in the next activity.

 Some common prepositions: in, on, about, after, before, without, for, at.

Then...

 Reminder for Students

Before moving on to the next activity, check the EXTRA PDF material uploaded to the platform:

 File Name: SPELLING-RULES-ING

This material will help you understand the spelling rules for adding -ing to verbs, such as:

- run → running
- make → making
- write → writing

 Study the rules and examples carefully. They will help you avoid spelling mistakes when writing gerunds.

Then, work on the following exercise EXERCISE 2: GAP-FILLING.

DIRECTIONS:

Now that you've studied the grammar explanation and the SPELLING-RULES-ING PDF, it's time to practice!

Complete the sentences by writing the correct -ing form (gerund) of the verb in parentheses.

 Remember: If a verb comes after a preposition, it must be in the -ing form.

After that, read and study the explanation, structure, and examples of the MODAL VERB "USED TO". Think about how technology, tools, or habits have changed over time. You will use this structure in the next exercise.

Then, work on EXERCISE 3: TRANSFORMATION DRILL.

 DIRECTIONS:

Rewrite the following sentences using the modal verb used to. This means you'll turn a past action or state into a sentence with used to + base verb.

 Be sure to keep the meaning the same, just change the structure!

Later, work on the READING TASK: DESCRIBING FUNCTIONS AND FEATURES OF INPUT AND OUTPUT DEVICES

 INSTRUCTIONS:

Now that you've reviewed important grammar structures, it's time to apply your reading comprehension skills in a technology context.

Read the passage titled:

 "Describing Functions and Features of Input and Output Devices"

Pay attention to how input and output devices are explained, including their main functions and technical features.

 EXERCISE 4: TRUE OR FALSE

 DIRECTIONS:

After reading the passage, decide whether the following statements are True (T) or False (F) based on the information in the reading.

 Make sure you refer back to the text when deciding on your answers!

Finally, complete the WORKSHEET

VOCABULARY MATCHING EXERCISE: Match each device from the list with its correct function.

 Your goal is to show that you understand what each device does and how it fits into a computer system—whether it's for input, output, or both.

IMPORTANT

Read the instructions before each synchronous session and make sure to ask any questions you have about tasks, activities, or exams.
